Will Appeal the Case.

THE RECORD TO DATE.

Ex-Police Capt. John T. Stephenson, indicted for bribery, found guilty. Penalty, mprisonment for not less than five not

TO RE TRIED.

Police Capt, Max Schmittberger, West Thirtieth Street Station, indicted for dicted for bribery.

Ex-Sergt. Charles A. Parkinson, indicted for bribery.

Ex-Sergt. Fellx McKenna, indicted for

Fx-Ward Man John Hock, indicted for

Ex-Ward Man Bernard Mechan, in

CONVICTED.

GET HIGHER UP SOMEHOW!

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1894.

EXTRA.

AND HIS GANG.

Witness Lenftman Says "Silver Dollar" Is a Power in Police Courts.

Alderman of Complaints Against Gamblers.

JUSTICE HOGAN AGAIN NAMED.

Job Under Gilrey-Mrs. Monahan's Adventure with Po ice.

Mr. Goff's failure to "Go Up Higher" the Lexow Committee began its ion to-day. The absence of very

He said he had made a complaint against Bambrich at Police Hesdquarters but Mr. Moss advised him to present the case to the District-Attorney. Ferguson said he would do so.

Mrs. Katle Monahan was then called to the stand.

She is married, and lives at 247 West Seventeenth street with her husband, and keeps a boarding-house. She is the woman who was spoken of yesterday by Rev. Dr. Wilson as having been perse-cuted by the police.

for bribery.

Ex sergt. George Leibers, indicted for bribery. Complaints Were of No Avail. The witness said she complained to het landlord, the Brewing Company, but was informed that nothing could be done.

Informed that nothing could be done,

Q liid you go to Capt. Donobue about it? A.
Yes, but although he said he knew they were disorderly houses he could not do anything to get Mrs. Glies out.

Q. What did you do then? A. I went to see Supt. Byrnes. He went out of his office as I went in and I only saw one of his men. I ridd him my story, and he took it down. The next day Mrs. Giles stopped ms in the street, right before an officer and told me everything
I had seld at th. Central Office. She issuited me, and the policeman would not stop hor.

Continuing her story, Mrs. Monahan said she went to Justice Hogan, and was told by him to go home and not trouble the court with such matters. She then went to Justice Taintor, who told her to get a summons, which she did, and brought the landlord into court. She waited all the morning, and not hearing the case called, asked Justice Hogan about it, and was told that it had ocen called and disposed of. This surprised me, and I told him I had not heard it. But he said I had Fruit Merchant Martin N. Edwards, in consideratio of permitting him to violate the new by obstructing the sidewalk in front of his commission-house during the year 18M.

As stated in "The Evening World's" Night Edition, the jury retired at 4.30. They returned their verdict at 7.45, the delay, it is said, having been caused by juror McKeon, who occupied seat No. I in the fury box, and is believed to have stood out for acquittal.

Ex-Capt Stephenson passed a quiet night, according to his keeper, in cell No. 3, ground tier, of the Old Prison, in the Tombs. In spite of the evident shock he received when the verdict was rendered, he slept well, it was reported, and arising at 7 o'clock, ate a hearty breakfast.

three-quarters of an hour's deliberation

The specific offense, as already dehe accepted baskets of peaches from

CAPT. STEPHENSON.

CAPT. STEPHENSON.

Capt. Stephenson will be arraigned for sentence one week from to-day. Th. penalty for his crime is not less than five 'r more than ten years and $5,000 fm. or both.

"The conviction of Stephenson yesterday," said Travers Jerome, "I look upon as a great triumph for the Lexow investigation. It was said that Mr. Goff was proceeding without any rules of evidence, and that 'hings would be very different when the cases were brought into court before a jury. The same thing was said 'bout the trials before the Police Hoard. Now, however, the matter has been laid before a fair and intelligent jury, and they saw that the man was guilty."

BROKER CHAPMAN'S CASE.

His Indictment Argued Before the District Court of Appenis.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.-The case of Broker Chapman, of New York City, indicted in connection with the Sugar Trust investigation, was argued efore the District Court of Appeals

this afternoon.
Attorneys Jore. Wilson and Samuel Shellabarger appeared for the broker, making the contention that the Senate had not a constitutional right to authorize its committee to make the investigation. And that the committee had no authority to require answer to the questions.

ions.

For the Government, United States

CLEMENTS REAPPOINTED.

The Georgia Man Will Serve Another Term as Commissioner. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13 .- The

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate:
Judson C. Clements, of Georgia, to be an Interstate Commerce Commissioner, Reappointment. Term will expire Dec. II. 1894.
Jervis Spencer, of Maryland, to be Consul of the United States at Curaocs, West Indies.

ANTATA IN A CELL. CHARGES WERE WEAK

the Westervelt Trial.

He Refuses to Make a Statement The Captain's Lawyer Procested, but Was Overruled.

the Next Meeting.

lourish in his precinc

One Hundred and Fourth street. "Frenchy" appeared before the Lexon Committee a short time ago, and in his testimony he rattled off a list of a score of policy shops which were running over-time to catch up with the colored trade

When the case was called Mr. House entered a plea of not guilty, and asked to see the charges under which the Capain was tried on March 13.

cial, which leads from the new Criminal Oyer and Terminer, before Justice Inlarged.

TOO SMALL FOR MORTON.

ALBANY, Dec. 13.-Governor-elect at ALBANY, Dec. 12.—Governor-elect and Mrs. Morton's Winter retinue at Albany will consist of fifteen servants. The mansion will prove inadequate for the family, and Supt. Perry, of the Capitol, will prepare at once for an addition which will cost about 516,000.

There are no stables attached, and Mr. Morton's coaches and horses will be quartered in some large stable nearby. The Governor-elect will bring no furniture to the house, but simply bric-a-brac and paintings.

If the Elevator Doesn't Suit You Try the Ladder, Mr. Goff.

Takes the Second Race, with On-

Court to-day with a broken nose and se-cured a warrant for the arrest of Wade Opening Event Goes to Samaritan at Odds of 5 to 1.

> Seventeen Books Doing Business at the Virginia Track.

RACE TRACK, ALEXANDER ISL-AND, Dec. 13.—All records for the number House to protest against the conduct of of bookmakers at the Alexander Island the Socialists, who, nevertheless, concourse were broken to-day, as seven cen pencillers were on the line. Warm and pleasant weather prevailed, out the track was sticky, and fast time was out of the question. The withdrawals were few and the in dications pointed to good betting, the attendance being the best of the week. The New York contingent was increased

The Slayer of Mrs. Carrie Pearsall Declared Sane.

Mrs. Catharine Fitzgerald, Police Inspector W. A. McLaugnlin's sister, who shot and killed Mrs. Carrie Pearsall several months ago, and was committed to the Middletown Insane Asylum, was discharged from custody by Justice Cullen, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, today.

Elizabeth, 162 (Murphy)..... 20-1 8-1 4 9 11

To a fair start Son Malheur rushed to the forest and the field two lengths to the turn for home. Samaritan laid second to the stretch, and, vigorously ridden, caught Son Malheur in the last thirty yards, winning by three parts of a length. Tiny Tim ran poorly the first part of the Journey, but came strong at the end, getting third place. Time—1.28 3-4.

SECOND RACE.

discharged from custody by Justice Customary discharged from customary discharged from the factor of the following from the first of the factor of case was tried, committed her to the asylum.

Recently her friends became satisfied that she had fully recovered her reason, and they set about to secure her release. An order was procured yesterday commanding the asylum officials to show cause why she should not be discharged.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was brought into court shortly before noon to-day and was set free.

Kentacky Lady, 107 (Konrad).50-1 20-1 7-7

Ontario, His Grace and Marguerite were close together in front of the rest to the far turn, where Marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him. Murphy went to the whip, which made Ontario swerve. Fredericks beat Marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace and Marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him. Murphy went to the whip, which made Ontario swerve. Fredericks beat Marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him. Murphy went to the whip, which made Ontario swerve. Fredericks beat Marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him. Murphy went to the whip, which made Ontario swerve. Fredericks beat marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him. Murphy went to the whip, which made Ontario swerve. Fredericks beat marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him. Murphy went to the whip, which made Ontario swerve. Fredericks beat marguerite was beaten. Ontario looked all over a win-mer in the stretch, but gave up just as soon as His Grace challenged him.

RACING AT NEW ORLEANS.

Young Man Fatally Wounded by Good at the Crescent City Track. LYNN, Mass., Dec. 13.-Gideon W. Latimer, jr., son of a well-known ex-pressamn, of this city, was shot and (Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, NEW ORLEANS

probably fatally wounded to-day by a Dec. 13.—Splendid weather and a good young woman named Maud Brewer, to track were the conditions this afternoon. whom he had in the past paid some attention.

Lately Lattmer had transferred his attentions to another young lady. This Pive furiouga PIRST RACE.

Toss Witt, 100 (f. Gardner), 50-1 15-1 9 9 9
Pisa, Imp. Pomegranite and Red Tolheaded the field to a fair start. Pomegranite set the pace down the back stretch, Red Top and Pisa being in from of the others. Pisa, however, header Pomegranite in the run around the turn and once in front stayed there, winning in a drive by half a length from Red Top, who beat Black Jack two lengths for the place. Time-1.023-4.

THE POPE HAS CATARRH.

SHELF

HousE,

STATION

Leave His Apartments. LONDON, Dec. 13.-The Lancet says

of Deputies to Adjours.

ROME, Dec 13 .- There was an uproar to-day in the Chamber of Deputies, ow-ing to a question put by a Socialist Deputy respecting the dissolving of the Mu-nicipal Council of Parma. When the Government tried to explain the Socialsts, especially Sig. Agnini, made vio-

President Biancherl appealed to the tinued the tumuit until the President suspended the sitting. When the House reassembled, the Deputies passed a vote of thanks to Sig.

COL. STRONG IS SWORN IN.

ing in Court. Mayor-elect William L. Strong took the Mayor Gilroy to-day appointed John L. Hoff-man, who is in the frame business in Fourteenth street, and lives at 75 Rast Fourth street, as in-spector of common schools for the Fourth District. He takes the piace of Joseph Brueil, a jewsiler, of 25 Avenue A, who resigned.

Claims Against the State.

said to have been overpaid to the State, bebegan the building of two canal-boats in a small slip off the canal. The fitate constructed a bridge across the slip and shut his boats in life asks $2,000 damages.

National Park at Shiloh.

Big Money for New Piers. Managers of the White Star line offer to lease the new piers to be built by the Dack Commis-sioners west of pier 47 North River, "t a rental not exceeding $100,000.

Had Money to Throw Away.

RESULTS AT ROBY.

The races on this track to-day resulted

PRICE ONE CENT.

TRINITY'S BAD TENEMENTS.

Shocking State of Affairs Re vealed by Health Board's Investigation.

CELLARS REEK WITH FILTH.

Roofs Leak, Walls Damp, Yards Dangerous and Foul Odors Everywhere.

NINETEEN HOMES INSPECTED.

The Work Was Done by Physic

partment, to-day received reports from the Sanitary Inspectors sent out to in-vestigate the condition of the tenement-houses owned by the Trinity Corporathe yards dangerous, and in the cellars were found to with fifth, oath of office at 10.50 o'clock this morning before Justice Barrett in Part I. of the Special Term of the Supreme Court. The small court-room was crowded.

Col. Strong's open dispute with Thomas C. Platt has caused a great deal of talk among politicisns. His denial of Platt's view that a straight Republican as indicating that the Democratic organizations which supported Strong will come in for a share of the patronage.

The Colonel has not made any definite statement regarding this particular matter as vet, however.

Nation: Bank Examiner Kimbali is being overworked and Comptrolier Eckles is leoking for a suitable man to assit him. The job will pay 44,500.

Hoffman Made School Transfer.

SEELY STARTS TO-NIGHT.

enge Commissioner. CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Samuel C, Seely, the New York bank defaulter, was taken before United States Commissioner Wirt for preliminary examination to-day, President Crane, of the National Phos-and Leather Bank, was present and and Leather Bank, was present and outlined the crime, and Seely was held under $20,000 bonds. He waived examina-

The United States local Inspectors of sleage va-sels blame Pilot Myers, of the Hobekest Parry Company's best Netherlands, for running 1918

RUN BY SMITH

M'LAUGHLIN IS IMPLICATED.

Intimation that He Notified the

The Witness Tells of His "Snap" was reflected in the small attendance an apparent loss of interest.

Among the spectators this morning was Congressman-elect Harry Miner.

It was supposed at first that he was there only from motives of curiosity. but later it developed that he had been

TERENCE LEONARD. CHARLES WEISSBECKER.

to get the police to close two disorderly nouses on either side of her house, but no attention was paid to her complaint.

When she went to court about the matter she said Justice Hogan ordered her

ule of the rewards turned in to the

The first witness called was John J.

Ferguson, of 258 West Forty-fifth street

uid not talk very plainly and Mr offered in evidence.

warrant against her on Sept. 5 last.
The wit less said that after she saw Mr. Jerome and talked with him she went back to Capt. Donohue, but he refused to see her.
On the first of the next month Miss Giles ostensibly gave up one of her houses, but the witness said it was still continued to be run as a disorderly place.

place.

Detective Etienne Bayer was recalled to the stand, and said he wished to make some correction in his testimony of yesterday. He remembered, he said, that when Capt. Murphy came to borrow the 1300 he said he had the interest on some hotes to pay. The money was owed by him to a Mr. Hershberg, Mr. Goff called for Mr. Hershberg, but he was not in court.

It was reported that Mr. Goff and Supt. Byrnes had been in conference this week relative to the latter's testimony Hard to Get Witnesses to Attend. Hard to Get Witnesses to Attend.

The counsel then told the Committee that he was having great difficulty in getting witnesses to attend, especially the police witnesses, and that if it continued the Committee would have to suspend operations and spend a week or so before the Grand Jury.

"Our men have been out continually for the last two nights, but have not been able to find these absent witnesses, and it has interfered greatly with our work," said he. "They plead sickness and other excuses, and they are continually coming to me to be excused." John J. Ferguson, who swore that three of his teeth had been knocked out by

Miner Wanted to "e Excused.

out.

Finally she got a summons for Mrs.

Glies, the alleged keeper of the disorderly houses, but when the case was called with a headache, and wanted to be let ly houses, but when the case was called in court she says, she was not informed of it until it was disposed of.

Just before recess a witness testified that "Bilver Dollar" Smith was at the head of a gang which practically controlled many police courts.

It is thought that several of the justices will be called to testify.

When the session was called to order, Mr. Moss first put in evidence a scheduler.

Mr. Miner Pocked very much grieved at this, and Chairmen Lexow, who had meantime come in and taken his place with the Cotamit's e. said that Mr. Miner should remember that some of the Eenators had come hundreds of miles to conduct the treatment of the with a headache. and wanted to be let off.

"I can'r do it." said Mr. Goff. "It's the with esset talk. He must stay."

Mr. Miner Pocked very much grieved at this, and Chairmen Lexow, who had meantime come in and taken his place with the Cotamit's e. said that Mr. Miner should remember that some of the Eenators had come hundreds of miles the conduct the treatment of the conduct the miles the with the with a headache. and wanted to be let off.

"I can'r do it." said Mr. Goff. "It's stay."

It is thought that several of the justified at the with the withenesses talk. He must stay."

Mr. Miner Pocked very much grieved at this, and Chairmen Lexow, who had meantime come in and taken his place with the Cotamit's e. said that Mr. Miner Pocked very much

Saw Meakim First.

Police Pension Fund by members of the force since 1889, which he has compiled from the records. It showed that in 1889 the amount turned in was $66.25; in 1890, $96; 1891, $48; 1892, $223; 1893, $5. In almost every case the individual contributions were small, usually not exceeding $10, and several were under $5.

Charles Weis-becker, who keeps a meat market in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, testified that he had occasionally had trouble with the police in regard w delivering goods on the sidewalk, but he had never paid any money for privileges.

I Q Didn't you see Capt. Meakint this morning?

A Weil yes (hesitatingly), I did. I stepped in on my way from breakfast.

Q You received your subposess last night? A yea sir.

Q What did you say to the Captain? A We only had a friendly conversation.

Q Yea spoke lout the subposes? A I told him I had no.

Q And he told you to my nothing? A Ne. sir. He did not tail me saything of the sert.

Mr. Weissbecker was interrupted at this pecint, and Terence Leonard, a hadly bruised looking individual, with his head done up in handages, took the stand. Mr. Moss said these items might be useful for future reference and they were Moss naked him what was the matter.
"I lost three of my teeth in the upper faw on Thanksgiving morning."

Q. How 612 you lose then? A. A polycemia struck use is the mouth and knocked them out.

Beaten in a Saloon.

Stephenson the First Police Cap- Police Board Forced to Adjourn tain to Be Convicted.

lugraham's Charge-He New Charges Will He Drawn Up for Police Capt. Josiah Westervelt, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station, was arraigned for trial before the Police Board this morning on the harge of permitting policy acops to

His accuser was Vincent Majewski who rejoices in the sobriquet of "Frenchy," and who jure - 349 East

Capt. Westervelt's precinct.

"The papers are in the po the Senate Committee," said Mr. Martin. "It is unfortunate," said Mr. House, "for I don't think you have a right to try a man twice for the same offence

Ex-Ward Man George Smith, indicted for bribery.

John Thomas Stephenson, late Captain of police at the Leonard street station, for the first time in his life found himself in the old gray Tombs prison, not as complainant or committing officer, but as a prisoner.

He was ushered there by a deputy sheriff about 8 o'clock last night over the "Bridge of Sighs," then first trod by a "Pantata".

"I think the Board will go on with the case," said Mr. Martin.

Then Mr. House moved that that particular place be stricken off the present charges.

There was an argument over this, during which Mr. House said he would have the papers, even if he had to summon the Recorder-elect and every one else connected with the Lexow Committee. A truce was patched up, and "Frenchy" was called by Mr. Wellman as the first willness.

Q. What's your business? A. I opened a policy shop there.

"I object." said Mr. Martin.

Then Mr. House moved that that particular place be stricken off the present charges.

There was an argument over this, during which Mr. House said he would have the papers, even if he had to summon the Recorder-elect and every one else connected with the Lexow Committee.

A truce was patched up, and "Frenchy" was called by Mr. Wellman as the first willness.

Q. What's your business? A. I opened a policy shop there.

"I object." said Mr. Martin.

shop there.
"I object," said Mr. House, and as Frenchy continued talking Mr. House shouted:
"Shut up, you are not before the Lexow Committee now, and you can't do as you please."
"Neither can you," retorted Frenchy, wrinkling his forehead and looking savage.

age. "This man is asked," said Mr. House, addressing the Commissioners. "what his business is." "Frenchy" weithed about in his chair, and finally said he was a policy writer in the shop at 341 East One Hundred and Fourth street, in March, April and May.

Fourth street, in March, April and May,

Q. Who was rour backer? A. Cornelius Parker.

Q. Dering the months you were there did you see anybody at the station-house! A. You I used to see Ward Man Smith.

Q. Who wise? A. I aw Capt. Westervelt with the books in Reptember, 1881.

In detail the witness said he took two policy books to the Captain at that time, and was told to deliver them to Mr. Morron, a policy backer.

In March the witness said Capt. Westervelt had come to his place of buniness and asked him if a "World" reporter had been there or if anybody had been there.

Q. Who was your runner—the man who brought you gour slips? A. Jake Adams, and he tried to kill me when I went before the Lexow Committee.

Then the textimony was shifted to the

CAPT. WESTERVELT.

The Commissioners speedily found they had an untrustworthy lot o charges on their hands—a job lot, as it were—which Mr. House was pulling and tearing all to pieces, and under which it did not seem as though they could convict the Captain on trial.

President Martin asked his brother Commissioners if they would adjourn, so as to give tnem a chance to have the charges patched Jp.

The matter was finally adjusted, and Mr. Wellman was instructed to retire gracefully from the field, but to be sure and take the Commissioners along.

"I move the Board adjourns to prepare additional charges against Capt. Westervelt." he said.

"The Board will grant the motion made by Mr. Wellman, and will adjourn to this day week," said Mr. Martin, breathing a great sigh of relief.

"I'll take an exception," began Mr. House, "and i want to say right here that the Board had no right to adjourn after having once commenced this action. The defendant is here, and all his witnesses are here, and we are ready to go on with the case, and Capt. Westervelt demands that the Board proceed."

President Martin looked out of the window and said, hurriedly:

"The Board stands adjourned until this day week at 10 o'clock." CAPT. WESTERVELT.

HIS GRACE A WINNER.

tario Second, at Alexander.

W. Rowe, of 358 State street, Brooklyn Both men are employed at the ubjected to all sorts of annoyances by Jordan. This morning, Rowe says, had scarcely seated bimself at his desk of paper. He accused Jordan. The lie was passed and Rowe struck out from the shoulder and landed full on Jordan's While young Jordan was very reticen through when the blow was struck. Rowe was arrested at his desk and taken to the Tombs Court. He pleaded guilty, but said the assault was provoked. He asked for a trial by jury and was held in default of $500 bail for the Court of General Sessions. Assistant Treasurer Jordan said: "It is true that the young man, Frank M. Jordan, is my nephew, but he was the office for some time when I came here. I have absolutely nothing to say #### about the reported trouble between him and Mr. Rowe." MRS. FITZGERALD SET FREE.

HE BROKE JORDAN'S NOSE.

to a Police Court.

Hundred and Thirty-seventh street, who is said to be a nephew of Assistant

Freasurer Conrad N. Jordan, of the Sub Treasury, appeared at the Tombs Polic

Treasury as bookkeepers.

b-Treasury Row Transferred

M. Jordan, of 318 West One

SHOT BY HIS SWEETHEART.

the Girl He Had Jilted.

Lately Latimer had transferred his attentions to another young lady. This noon he went to Miss Brewer's house, at 13 Bond street, to return some articles loaned him by her. When he told his errand and announced that he was shortly to be married to another woman, she draw a revolver, and with the remark: "If I can't have you, no one else shall." she fired three times at Latimer. One shot took effect in his shoulder and the other two entered his stomach. After the shooting the young woman made her escape.

Both the parties are about twenty-three years of age.

Gallant Ranchman Taylor.

When the Ascharia was in midsean High

The weather fr ocast for the thirty-six hours eding at $ F. M. to-morrow is an follows: Fair to-day; Friday and faturday slightly receive; at the continuous state of hours at the following record shows the changes in the temperature dirth, the merning hours, as indicated by the themsended for the ship. John H. Taylor, a Western ranchman, divested himself of hoots and coat speaks over-the first allows are exceeded Fraser, when the seaman sank. The Anchoria was put alout and placed by the thermometer at herry's Franchy:

A. M. 1415 A. M. 1517 A. M. 1511 M. 1517 M. 1517

the Pope is suffering from catarrhal symptoms, and that he has been for-bidden by his physicians to leave his Socialists Compel the Italian House

Biancheri for his energetic conduct.

the Oath of Office This Morn

ALBANY, Dec. 12.—The county of Essex this morning filed a claim with the State of $4,996,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—Senator Bate, from the Committee an Military Affairs, to-day presented a favorable report on the bill oreating a National Park out of the battlefield of Shilub.

Fred Jack, a carpenter, of 199 East Pourth street, had money to throw away to-day to pass-ers-by. When arrested he had a wallet contain-ing $122.41. He was locked up in the pavillon for mane.

RACE TRACK, ROBY, Ind., Dec. 13.-

First Race—Four and a half furiongs.

Wen by Sylvan, 4 to 1 and 5 to 5; Eldorado second, 4 to 1 place, and Con Mesweeny third. Time-0.8 1-4.

Second Race—Five furiongs.—Wen by Walkover, 5 to 5 and 3 to 5; Little Hilly second, 8 to 5 place; Tremor third. Time—1.06 1-2.

Defaulter Arraigned Before a Chi-

He will be taken to New York at A.S. o'clock to-night. Pilot Myers Consured.